

Thinking through comfort

What is your emotional response to the object you selected? Do you like it? Name two or three emotions that come up for you.

Write a short description of the object. Consider the colour, texture, shape, temperature, etc. what is it made of?